Value: Serving others (service) (18.4.17-28.04.17)

tearfund

World Vision
Every child free from fear

Releasing children from poverty
Compassion
in Jesus' name

Here are some examples of Christian charities, charities both local and global but all with one vision. What do you think all these charities have in common with each other? You may like to research some of them to find out more about them.

Why is it important to have charities like this across the globe?

Luke 6:38 (MSG)

Give away your life; you'll find life given back, but not merely given back - given back with bonus and blessing. Giving, not getting, is the way. Generosity begets generosity."

Today I encourage you to do a small act of kindness for somebody else, this is serving others. A little act of kindness goes a very long way!

National Langar Week

National Langar Week takes place across Gurdwaras (A Sikh place of worship) and even the streets of cities all over the country.

The main principles of langar are: Fighting Hunger, Equality in Action and Teaching Compassion.

"Free food for everyone regardless of faith, gender, age or status"
