Value: Faithfulness (13.3.17-31.3.17)

Faithfulness is the action of working according to a person's faith.

Hebrews 11 in the Bible shows us 'Faith in Action' and says:

Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.

(<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Hebrews+11>)

Reflect on the statement above from Hebrews. How easy is it to keep faith when you do not see any signs in front of you? What can we learn from this passage in the Bible?

With the season of Lent upon us, we often think about fasting and giving up something for lent. Reverend Dave told us that fasting by giving up or taking up something can help draw us closer to God by thinking of God during this time.

Faith in Action

11 Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. ²This is what the ancients were commended for.

³By faith we understand that the universe was formed at God's command, so that what is seen was not made out of what was visible.

⁴By faith Abel brought God a better offering than Cain did. By faith he was commended as righteous, when God spoke well of his offerings. And by faith Abel still speaks, even though he is dead.

⁵By faith Enoch was taken from this life, so that he did not experience death: "He could not be found, because God had taken him away."^[a] For before he was taken, he was commended as one who pleased God. ⁶And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.

⁷By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that is in keeping with faith.

⁸By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. ⁹By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹And by faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she^[b] considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹²And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore.
